Grasslands Ltd, KentWelcome to Grasslands Ltd.Cultivating nearly 1,000 acres of prime land on Kent's Romney Marsh, Grasslands Ltd is not only the South's largest turf growing enterprise, but also one of the largest in the country. Grasslands was formed in 1981 when farmer, Peter Baxter, astutely identified an opportunity to take advantage of his prime location amid what is widely considered to be the region's premier turf growing area, and diversify from mainstream agriculture. Following Peter's recent retirement, his younger son Simon, who has worked with his father in the family business for the past 20 years, now manages the company, with the support of a full time team of 25.Our quality turf graces the landscapes of some of the South's most noteworthy addresses including the Tower of London and the Natural History Museum, Kew Gardens (2008), Bluewater and the new home of Eurostar, Ebbsfleet International Station (2007). Furthermore, we provide turf for literally thousands of private gardens across the South East every single year.Our dedicated head office and field based teams have a wealth of experience, knowing almost all there is to know about turf. We personally control every single element of your order, from the seed we sow through to the exact time of your delivery. This allows us to deliver a personal, precise and tailored solution to your requirement, whether you are a national landscape contractor looking to turf an entire park or housing development, or a homeowner requiring a pallet of turf for your back garden.Our offices are manned five days a week where our knowledgeable staff are ready to assist from 8am to 5pm. We are also used to difficult sites where access during normal office hours is simply not possible and we will, in such circumstances, do our very best to schedule our deliveries to suit your requirements.
