Harbour HR Ltd Harbour HR Limited is an established consultancy providing bespoke domestic and international HR solutions. From one off projects to ongoing long term support, Harbour HR's expertise ranges from HR support, immigration assistance and outsourced payroll services to special project assignments. Harbour HR's team of consultants, each being specialists in their own area with several years of experience to draw upon, are deployed to your projects dependent on the skills which you require. We can also work alongside your existing team to provide additional support. Harbour's proactive, productive and personal approach ensures a successful working partnership whether you are looking for individual assistance with your visa application or for ongoing HR Support. As an employer in the UK, you have certain responsibilities (and indeed legal requirements) that are fundamental to the employer-employee relationship. These range from legal obligations under law on how you hire and manage your workforce to how you develop and retain them for your mutual benefit. Harbour HR recognises that Human Resources is a critical area that requires much time and effort. We are also aware that it may not always be at the top of your priority list when you are striving to meet targets and manage your business costs effectively. Our Human Resources consultancy team is equipped to help you with this key part of your business, or even take away the day-to-day responsibility, if you require. This will leave you free to manage your business in the knowledge that your key commodity, your employees, are being looked after in an effective and profitable way.If you are concerned whether you currently comply with UK employment legislation or simply want to review how you can better develop and benefit from your workforce Harbour HR can help• Human Resources Consultancy: For a little or a lot of help manoeuvring your way through the legislative minefield and managing your workforce, however small, find out more about Harbour HR's solutions as expert human resources consultants. • Immigration and Work Permits: Whether you're an individual considering applying for citizenship or an employer who needs to transfer a key employee we can help.
